

Rebecca Bole

EVP & Editor-in-Chief

Rebecca Bole is Executive Vice President Editor-in-Chief at Advisen. She is responsible for Advisen's Media business, including news, events and bespoke content for clients.

Rebecca joined Advisen in October 2013 with nearly 20 years of experience in the international insurance markets. She spent the previous five years at Insider Publishing, where she was most recently Publishing Editor, in charge of all editorial output. Prior to that, Rebecca built an Insider publication and associated events that brought together the community members who led the convergence of the re/insurance industry and the capital markets.

She began her insurance career as an Underwriter in the London market. Rebecca has worked at ACE, St. Paul, and Archer Group where she had global responsibilities for management liability and fidelity products for financial institutions accounts.

Rebecca has a BA in French and Spanish from the University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne (UK), where she graduated with Honours. She has also earned ACII designation by the Chartered Insurance Institute.

Rebecca is based in London, UK.
