

ADVISEN TRANSFORMING INSURANCE

Leading the way to smarter and more efficient risk and insurance communities, Advisen delivers the right information into the right hands at the right time to power performance.

Serving commercial and specialty insurance communities with data, media, and technology, Advisen reaches more than 200,000 commercial insurance and risk professionals at 8,000 organizations worldwide. The company was founded in 2000 and is headquartered in New York City, with offices in the US and the UK.

ADVISEN DATA

DATA AND RELATIONSHIPS RUN DEEP.

We strive to be the most trusted data provider informing commercial/specialty risk and insurance decisions. We deliver valuable content with high integrity that integrates seamlessly into client workflows. We collaborate with clients to create an exceptional user experience.

As the category leader, Advisen has more specialty risk data than anyone in the industry. Of course, all that data is just numbers unless you have a trusted partner to help you put it to use. We collaborate with our clients to make sure they have the right information and insights to make the best decisions.

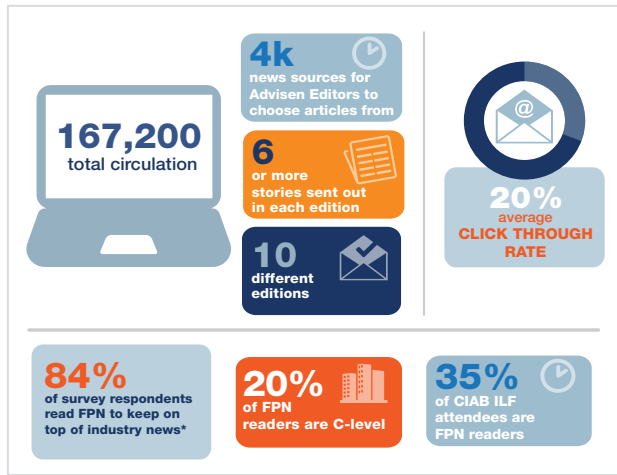

ADVISEN MEDIA

MAKING BUSINESS CONNECTIONS HAPPEN.

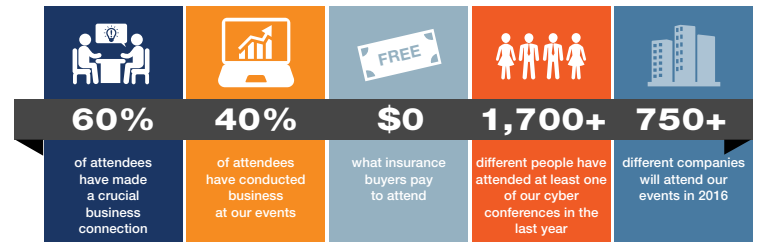

Advisen news and events connect the largest community of commercial insurance professionals. We focus on topical issues, bringing unbiased context and insight. With the largest daily circulation in commercial insurance, Front Page News includes content from:

ADVISEN TECHNOLOGY

CONNECTING INSURANCE COMMUNITIES.

Advisen provides data transformation services globally through London-based Web Connectivity Ltd. Our data transformation services enable clients to communicate with each other using ACORD messaging standards.

We offer business consulting and technical solutions for the following: electronic accounting and claims, electronic placing of risks and/or endorsements, and ACORD standards implementation in support of market initiatives. These solutions enable Brokers and Carriers to dramatically speed up transaction processing times and reduce unsettled cash amounts to virtually zero.
